

The Centre for Research on Latin America and the Caribbean,
& The Canadian Centre for German and European Studies Co-Present:

SUBURBS TALKS

Dr. Florian Koch

Department of History and Social Sciences
Universidad del Norte - Barranquilla, Colombia

"Urban planning and governance processes at the city fringe: The case of Barranquilla, Colombia"

Florian is Professor for European Studies and Regional Development at the Institute for European Studies, Universidad del Norte in Barranquilla, Colombia and holds a long-term lectureship of the DAAD – German Academic Exchange Service. He studied spatial planning in Dortmund and Rome and completed his doctorate in social sciences at Humboldt University Berlin. He was coordinator of the spatial planning program at Erfurt University of Applied Sciences. His main research areas include: Multi-Level-Governance, urban and regional studies, EU-Latin-American relations and local economic development. Florian is currently Visiting Scholar at the Centre for German and European Studies at York University.

Tuesday June 26, 2012
2:00-3:00 pm
Room 626, York Research Tower

CERLAC
30 YEARS
1978-2008

The Canadian Centre for
German & European Studies

